

To the Round Hill Church family,

Let me start with this, I am not going anywhere. I have however asked the Church Council to begin the search for someone to step in as the director of Youth Ministries. My intention is to continue as an active leader in a ministry that is working hard to help the youth in their faith walk as they mature as disciples of Christ. The time commitment and focus required of me to continue to direct this ministry is more than I can maintain and feel that it is in your best interest to request a new leader step in to further develop the mission of this ministry.

The Youth & I have spoken often about rebranding and creating an identity for today's Round Hill Youth Ministry and I feel through the experiences we've shared together that they have achieved exactly that. We are a mission-based ministry that has shown the community the love of Jesus Christ in our actions and in our words. Although the last couple of years have been a struggle for us all, and the acts of mission at times have been difficult to show the youth have continued to serve. When the opportunities have been there, they all have stepped up to the calling and served. They are always seeking new ways to connect to the community and have been willing to step out of their comfort zones on numerous occasions to lend a hand, an ear, or a loving smile. The youth of this church are eager to serve the mighty God as they discover who they are. I am not leaving them, Round Hill Church, and they are certainly never going to leave me. I fully intend to walk beside the next generation of leaders on their journey and will continue to support them in your spiritual growth. My heart will always be open to their needs and I will continue to support them as they define their path. I thank you for the opportunity to share in this journey, and I cannot wait to see where the youth take us from here.

Yours with heartfelt gratitude in service & love,

Josh Shable

Do not let anyone look down on you because you are young, but be an example for other believers in your speech, behavior, love, faithfulness, and purity.
